4. Inventories

a. Recognition

Inventories are stated at original cost. Where net realizable value is lower than cost, inventories should be measured at net realizable value. The cost of inventories should comprise all costs of purchase, costs of conversion and other direct costs incurred in bringing the inventories to their present location and condition.

The assets purchased for production, use or sale are not presented in this item but are presented in item "Long-term equipment, supplies, spare parts ", including:

- Work in progress beyond a normal operating cycle (over 12 months);
- Supplies, equipments and spare parts that has the storage period more than 12 months or a normal operating cycle.

b. Inventories valuation method

The ending inventory balance is determined by the weighted average method.

c. Inventories recording system

The perpetual method is used to record inventories.

d. Provision for obsolete inventories

At the reporting date, if inventories are not recoverable due to damages, obsolescence, reduction of selling price. In this case, the provision for obsolete inventories is made. The provision for obsolete inventories is the difference between the original costs of inventories and its net realizable value.

5. Tangible and intangible assets, finance leases and investment properties

Fixed assets are stated at the historical cost. During their useful life, fixed assets are recorded at cost, accumulated depreciation and amortisation and net book value.

The historical cost of financial leases is recorded as the fair value of the leased asset or the present value of the minimum rental payment (in case the fair value is higher than the present value of the minimum rent payment) plus the direct costs initially incurred related to the financial lease activities. If input VAT is deductible, the current value of the minimum rent payment does not include input VAT.

During the useful life, the depreciation and amortisation is recorded to the expenses for which the asset is used. Intangible assets that are land use rights are only depreciated for definite land use rights.

Investment properties are depreciated as a fixed asset, except for investment property held for appreciation. The Company accounts for impairment loss on investment properties held for appreciation.

Depreciation of tangible assets and amortization of intangible assets are calculated on a straight-line basis over the estimated useful life of each asset as follows:

- Buildings and structures	08 - 25 years
- Machinery and equipment	07 - 10 years
- Means of transportation	04 - 07 years
- Office equipment	03 - 06 years

14. Unearned revenues

Unearned revenues include incomes received in advance such as: rental prepayment of customer in one or numerous periods, interest prepayment of borrower or debt instrument purchase, the differential price on installment payment; corresponding to turnover of goods, services or discounts to customers in traditional client program.

The balance of the unearned revenue in foreign currency at the end of the fiscal year: if there is not reliable evidence lead to refund this amount, foreign exchange rate difference are not evaluated at the reporting date.

15. Convertible bonds

Convertible bonds are bonds that can be converted into ordinary shares of the same issuer under the conditions determined in the issuance plan.

Convertible bonds are tracked by type, term, interest rate, and face value. □

When issuing convertible bonds, the debt component of convertible bonds is recorded as liabilities; the equity component (stock options) of convertible bonds is recorded as equity.

At the time of initial recognition, the cost of issuance of convertible bonds was recorded as a reduction in the debt component of the bonds. Periodically, the cost of issuance of convertible bonds shall be gradually allocated in accordance with the bond maturity according to the straight-line method or the actual interest rate method by recording an increase in the value of the principal and recording it in the finance expenses or capitalisation in accordance with the recognition of the bond's payable interest; bond interest is recorded in financial expenses.

16. Equity

a. Contributed charter capital, share premium, convertible bond options, other owner's capital

Contributed charter capital is recorded in the actual amount of capital contributed by each individual and organisation.

When the investment license defining the charter capital of the enterprise is determined in foreign currency equivalent to an Vietnam dong amount, the determination contributed capital by investors in foreign currencies is based on the amount of foreign currency actually contributed.

The receipt of capital contribution in assets must reflect the increase in the owner's investment capital at the revaluation price of the assets approved by capital contributors. For intangible assets such as brands, trademarks, trade names, exploitation rights, project development, etc., the Company only record an increase in contributed capital if permitted by relevant laws.

For joint-stock companies, contributed charter capital is recorded based on the actual price of stock issuance, but is recorded in detail in two separate criteria:

- Contributions charter capitals are recorded according to par value of shares;
- Share premium shall record the difference between the par value and issue price of shares.

In addition, share premium shall record the difference between the par value and issue price of shares when re-issuing treasury shares.

Convertible bond options arise when the company issuing a type of bond that can convert into a specified number of shares stated in the issuance plan. The value of the equity component of convertible bonds is the difference between the total proceeds from the issuance of convertible bonds and the value of the debt component of convertible bonds. At the time of initial recognition, the convertible bond options are recorded separately in the owners' equity. When the bond matures, this option is accounted for as share premium.

Other owner's capital reflects business capital formed due to supplementation from operating results or from donation, sponsorship, and asset revaluation (according to current regulations).

Finance expenses include expenses for financial activities: expenses or losses relating to financial investment activities; borrowing expenses; incurred expenses for capital contribution to joint ventures and associates; losses from securities transfer; provision for diminution in value of trading securities; provision for diminution in value of investment in other entities; realised losses when selling foreign currency, realised foreign exchange losses, etc.

21. Selling expenses and general and administrative expenses

Selling expenses reflect indirect expenses incurred from selling goods and providing services.

General and administrative expenses reflect the general expenses of the company, including: labor cost; social and health insurance, unemployment fund, union cost of management employee; office and tools expenses, depreciation for assets used in administration purposes; land rental, business license tax; provision for bad debts; expenses from external services and other expenses, etc.

22. Taxation

Current tax expenses are the CIT expenses payable based on the taxable income and applicable CIT tax rate.

Deferred tax expenses is the CIT expenses payable in the future resulting from:

- Record of deferred tax liability during the year;
- Reimbursement of deferred tax assets recorded in previous years.

23. Foreign currency transactions

Transactions in currencies other than the Company's reporting currency of VND are recorded at the actual transaction exchange rates at transaction dates which are determined as follows:

- For foreign currency sale/purchase contract (spot foreign currency purchase and sale contracts, forward contracts, futures contracts, option contracts, swap contracts): the exchange rate signed in the foreign currency sale/purchase contract between the Company and the commercial banks shall apply;
- Capital contributions are recorded at the buying exchange rates of the commercial banks designated for capital contribution;
- Transactions resulting in receivables are recorded at the buying exchange rates of the commercial banks designated for collection;
- Transactions resulting in liabilities are recorded at the selling exchange rates of the commercial banks designated for payment;
- Payments for assets or expenses without liabilities initially being recognised is recorded at the buying exchange rates of the commercial banks that process these payments.

The specified book exchange rate is applied when recovering receivables, deposits, deposits or payment of liabilities in foreign currencies, which is determined by the exchange rate at the time the transaction arises.

The weighted average rate shall be applied in the credit side of the Cash account when making payments in foreign currency. □

24. Related parties

Parties are considered related parties if one party has the ability to control or has significant influence over the other party in decision-making of financial and operational policies. The parties are also considered related parties if they are under joint control or are under joint significant influence. □

In considering the relationship of related parties, the substance of the relationship is more focused on the legal form.

25. Segment report

A segment by business line is a separately identifiable part involved in the production or supply of products or services and has economic risks and benefits different than other business segments.

A segment by geography is a separately identifiable part involved in the production or supply of products and services within a specific economic environment and has economic risks and benefits different than other business segments in other economic environments.

26. Financial instruments

a. Financial assets

According to Circular 210, the Company classifies financial assets into groups:

- A financial asset recognised at fair value through profit or loss is a financial asset held for business purposes or classified as fair value through profit or loss at the time of initial recognition;
- Investments held to maturity are non-derivative financial assets with fixed or identifiable payments and have a fixed maturity that the Company intends and is able to hold until maturity;
- Loans and receivables are non-derivative financial assets with fixed or identifiable payments and are not listed on the market;
- Assets ready for sale are non-derivative financial assets that are determined to be ready for sale or are not classified as financial assets recognised at fair value through profit or loss, investments held to maturity or loans and receivables.

The classification of these financial assets depends on the purpose and nature of the financial assets and is decided at the time of initial recognition.

The Company's financial assets include cash and current deposits, trade receivables, other receivables, loans, listed and unlisted financial instruments.

Financial assets are recorded at the date of purchase and discontinued recording at the date of liquidation. At the time of initial recognition, financial assets are confirmed at the original price plus direct transaction costs related to the purchase and issuance.

b. Financial liabilities and equity instruments

Financial instruments are classified as financial liabilities or equity instruments at the time of initial recognition consistent with the nature and definition of financial liabilities and equity instruments.

According to Circular 210, the Company classifies financial liabilities into the following groups:

- Financial liabilities recorded at fair value through profit or loss are liabilities held for business purposes or classified as fair value through profit or loss at the time of initial recognition;
- Financial liabilities are determined according to the allocation value determined by the original costs of the financial liabilities minus the principal repayments, plus or minus the accumulated allocations calculated according to the effective interest rate method of the difference between the original costs and the maturity value, subtracting (either directly or through the use of a backup account) due to impairment or irrevocability.

VII. Other information (continued)3. Segment information:

The company does not prepare segment reports because it does not satisfy one of the two conditions according to business field or geographical location as prescribed in Circular 20/2006/TT-BTC dated March 20th, 2006 issued by Ministry of Finance regarding the guidance on implementation of 66 Accounting Standards issued under Decision No. 12/2005/QD-BTC dated February 15th 2005 issued by Ministry of Finance.

4. Financial assets and financial liabilities:

Due to the lack of specific guidance on accounting and monitoring of financial instruments, the Company has not fully prepared information technology systems, professional processes, databases, employee training, etc. to present this item.

5. The Company's financial risk management objectives and policiesa. Credit risk

Credit risk is the risk that counterparty will not meet its obligations under a financial instrument or customer contract, leading to a financial loss.

The Company is exposed to credit risk from its operating activities (primarily for trade receivables) and from its financing activities, including deposits with banks, foreign exchange transactions and other financial instruments.

b. Trade receivables

The Company minimizes credit risk by dealing only with the customers that have good credit history. Besides, the accountants follow up the account receivables regularly to expedite the receipt. Trade receivables of the Company are related to various entities and therefore the credit risk exposed from trade receivables is low.

c. Bank deposits

Most of the Company's cash in bank is in the large and trusted banks in Vietnam. Credit risk to this balance at the bank is managed by the treasury department of the Company in accordance with Company policy. The Company does not realize any material credit risk to this cash in bank.

d. Liquidity risk

The liquidity risk is the risk that the Company will encounter difficulty in meeting financial obligation due to shortage of funds.

The Board of Directors is responsible for managing liquidity risk. The most major payables are secured by deposits, receivables and short-term assets. The Company did not perform a sensitive analysis on liquidity risks because concentration on liquid risks are low.

The Company monitors its liquidity risk by maintain a level of cash and cash equivalents and bank loans deemed adequate by management to finance the Company's operations and to mitigate the effects of fluctuations in cash flows.

FINANCIAL STATEMENTS FOR QUARTER 4

For the fiscal year 2024, ended as at 31/12/2024

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Quarter 4 2024

VII. Other information (continued)

The Company believes that the concentration on liquidity risk of loan payment is low. The Company is able to pay its debts to due from cash flow from operating activities and proceeds from the financial assets to maturity.

f. Market risk

Market risk is the risk that the fair value of future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market prices. Market prices comprise four types of risk: interest rate risk, currency risk, commodity price risk and other price risk.

The sensitivity analyses have been prepared on the basis that the amount of net debt, the ratio of fixed to floating interest rates of the debt and the proportion of financial instruments in foreign currencies are all constant.

g. Equity price risk

The Company's listed and unlisted equity securities are susceptible to market price risk arising from uncertainty about future values of the investment securities. The Group manages equity price risk by placing a limit on equity investments. The Group's Board of Directors reviews and approves all equity investment decisions. The Company evaluates that the share price risk is low.

h. Foreign currency risk

Foreign currency risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in foreign exchange rates.

i. Interest rate risk

Interest rate risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market interest rates.

j. Foreign currency sensitivity

The Company evaluates exchange rate differences according to the guidances in Circular No. 200/2014/TT-BTC dated December 22nd 2014. At the end of the fiscal year, the exchange rate used to evaluate the period-end exchange rate difference of currency accounts is the actual exchange rate of the commercial banks where the Company opens accounts and carry out transactions; therefore, the Company does not calculate foreign currency sensitivity.

k. Price risk

Price risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate according to changes in market prices in addition to changes in interest rates and exchange rates. This issue does not affect the Company's financial statements.
